SECTION IX. CONTROL OF DANGEROUS AND VICIOUS DOGS

(a) Vicious/Dangerous Dogs

Pursuant to the provisions of West Virginia Code § 7-1-3kk, the Commission finds and declares that vicious and/or dangerous dogs are a public nuisance. The Commission further adopts this Ordinance pursuant to the authority of West Virginia Code §19-20-6 et seq.

1. A dangerous or vicious dog shall be defined to mean:

a. A dog that:

1. Without provocation has killed or inflicted injury on a person; or
2. Killed or inflicted severe injury upon a domestic animal, horse or livestock, when not on the offending dog owner's real property; or
3. Approached a person when not on the offending dog owner's property in a vicious or terrorizing manner, in an apparent attitude of attack, as determined by the Chief Animal Control Officer or his or her designee, upon the sworn affidavit of any person.

4. The fact that the dog is not in the habit of biting or has not bitten any person(s) shall not be the sole factor in determining whether the dog is vicious or dangerous.

b. Any dog owned or harbored primarily or in part for the purpose of dog fighting, or any dog trained for dog fighting.

2. Owner shall mean any person or legal entity that has a possessory property right in a dog.

3. Owners' real property shall mean any real property owned or leased by the owner or owners of the dog, but does not include any public right-of-way or a common area of a condominium, apartment complex, townhouse or subdivision development.

4. Severe injury shall mean any physical injury that results in broken bones or disfiguring lacerations or which required surgery or hospitalization.

5. Injury shall mean any breaking of the skin, which results in bleeding, caused by bite.

(c) Officers' Responsibilities

The Supervising Animal Control Officer (SACO) of Morgan County or his or her designee, is hereby designated as the person responsible for initially determining when a dog is a dangerous or vicious dog. Such Animal Control Officer may not be able to make such determination early in his/her investigation. The Officer shall seize an offending dog before making that determination, if it appears that the dog is dangerous or vicious as defined in subsection (b) of this Ordinance. The dog may be kept for a period of up to ten (10) days for evaluation by the SACO and to determine if the dog is rabid, vicious or dangerous. The Officer may use his/her full discretion in making a determination before his or her decision is communicated to the dog owner. The Officer or his or her designee may, after appropriate observation at the Animal Control Facilities, determine that the dog is not vicious/dangerous but, rather, that the act of the dog was an anomaly and not the act of a vicious/dangerous animal. Such determination shall not be open to dispute through this Ordinance.

Any determination that a dog is vicious or dangerous shall be communicated by the Supervising Animal Control Officer, his or her designee, to the dog owner in writing within ten (10) days of said determination, giving the reasons for such determination.

(d) Disposition of Dog Following Final Determination

Any dog finally determined to be vicious or dangerous, in accord with the procedure established in W. Va. Code §19-20-20 and ordered to be destroyed by a court of competent authority, shall be disposed of by the Animal Control Office. (Vicious or dangerous dogs may not be made available to the public through adoption.)

(e) Exceptions

No police dog, which was engaged in the performance of its duties at the time of the acts complained of, shall be found to be a dangerous or vicious dog. No dog shall be found to be a dangerous or vicious dog solely because of its breed, nor is a particular breed of dog precluded from being determined to be vicious/dangerous. No dog shall be found to be a dangerous or vicious dog if the bite, attack or injury was sustained by a person who was (i) committing at the time a crime upon the premises occupied by the dog's owner; (ii) committing, at the time, a willful trespass or other tort upon the premises occupied by the dog's owner; or (iii) provoking, tormenting, or physically abusing the dog.

If, in the discretion of the Supervising Animal Control Officer, or his or her designee, a dog cannot safely be captured and detained, and the same has been determined by the Animal Control Officer to be vicious or dangerous, either definitionally or following full investigatory observation, the Animal Control Officer is authorized to take immediate and, if necessary, lethal action, against such dog notwithstanding the fact that no written notice has been communicated to the owner of the dog and that no hearing into said determination has been requested or held.

(f) Costs of Disposition in Vicious/Dangerous Designation Cases

When dogs are finally determined to be vicious or dangerous and, therefore, a nuisance, all costs of disposition, including legal fees, housing of the dog during the legal proceedings, termination of the dog's life and administrative costs expended by the County shall be reimbursed by the dog's owner.

Additionally, the owner of any dog finally found to be vicious shall pay any and all medical and/or veterinary costs, including costs for disposition of the bodies of pets which have died or been put down as a result of attack by such vicious or dangerous dog.

(g) Penalties

The Supervising Animal Control Officer, or his or her designee, shall cite the owner of any dog determined to be vicious or dangerous. The offense shall constitute a misdemeanor and the dog owner shall be fined a maximum of $100.00 for the first offense; for subsequent offenses such fine shall be a minimum of $300.00 with a maximum fine up to $1,000.00 or 30 days in jail, or both (W. Va. Code §19-20-19).
